

For the purposes of this Policy, educational materials shall be limited to the following list:

1. Textbooks and all supplementary written materials;
2. Audio visual materials;
3. All mechanized materials not classified as audio visual such as machines, computers, etc., which are used for specific classes; and
4. Lab materials for various science classes and materials used in the various vocational-technical classes.

Within the framework of St. Maries Joint School District No. 41's financial capabilities and State-adopted textbooks, teachers and administrators shall select educational materials. Students should be involved when pertinent. In selecting materials, every effort should be made to meet the needs and capabilities of all students.
